

Nottingham Scottish Association Trip to Green's Windmill and The Salvation Army Museum on the 6th SEPTEMBER 2017 at 11.00am.

Please meet at 11 o'clock at Green's Windmill, Windmill Lane Nottingham NG2 4QB. Coffee/Tea available from the staff @ £1 per cup. Cakes and biscuits also available to buy.

11.50 walk to the General Booth Birthplace Museum, 14 Notintone Place, Sneinton, Nottingham NG2 4QG. The visit will last from 12 until 1pm and will include a talk by the Curator.

Walk back to Green's Windmill for lunch.

Lunch is £5 and payable on the day direct to Green's Windmill.
Note lunch is optional but please advise Christine if this is required when you contact her to say you are coming.

This will consist of 1/2 of a nine inch pizza made from flour from the mill and a garden salad with produce from the mill's allotment. All made or gathered fresh on the day by the mill's volunteers. Tea and Coffee all served in the mill yard or in the community room of the mill.

All profits from the lunch will go to the Charity that runs the mill.
Green's Windmill staff will cook fresh Pizza at the time we want them so I will need to let them know how many to order.

IFYOU WOULD LIKE TO GO ON THIS TRIP PLEASE PHONE ME ON 0115 9523006 OR EMAIL ME vincent.christine@ntlworld.com BEFORE THE 30TH AUGUST.

How to get here

Green's Windmill is in Sneinton, about 1¼ miles east of Nottingham City Centre.

On foot: It's a fifteen minute walk from the city centre and the railway station.

By car: If you're travelling by car the postcode for your sat nav is NG2 4QB. Free parking is available in the car park on Windmill Lane. Disabled parking is available in the mill yard, accessed via Belvoir Hill (please call in advance to pre-arrange).

By public transport: Bus number 43 from King Street in the city centre passes Windmill Lane. For bus timetables and further information on getting public transport to Green's Mill call 0115 950 6070