The Toast to Scotland this year will be given by

Mrs Rosemary Allen

Rosemary, better known as 'Rosie', was born in New Zealand, 'The Land of the Long White Clouds'. During her early years, the family lived in Iraq, Pakistan and Thailand. Rosie then came to England and boarding school. Later, marriage led to a more settled life in Norfolk, teaching in rural schools, before taking a headship position here in Nottingham. Since her retirement Rosie enjoys walking, gardening and Scottish Country Dancing.

Following Dinner and Toast to Scotland, we are delighted to have Dougie MacInnes (aka Schuggie) to call your dances. Schuggie, 'Mr Ceilidh' has earned a great reputation with a big following for his Ceilidh Evenings and his regular Day Workshops for beginners.
